

AMACS

Australian Martial Arts Coaching Scheme

At last there is a Coaching Course especially tailored for School Owners and assistant instructors that ticks all the boxes.

Martial Arts Instructor need options for up skilling that take present qualifications into consideration and offer pathways to expand their school / business by providing current and relevant course material. Over the years Martial Arts Australia has worked with numerous RTOs, other associations and individual instructors to develop resource material that can be integrated into various nationally recognised training certificates. As a Peak Industry Body we highly recommend the new Australian Martial Arts Coaching Scheme 'AMACS' as we know exactly what has gone into it. Course levels start from 1 - 6 (starting with units of competency to a Diploma) so instructors can select the level they want to go for and complete it in a timely fashion. No having to repeat courses every couple of years!

AMACS ticking all the boxes

- *National Recognised Training
- *Government recognised units of competency
- *Endorsed by insurance companies
- *Endorsed by the martial arts industry
- *Created by leaders in the industry using new and existing material
- *Specially selected course units relevant for today's school owners
- *Caters to the modern day and traditional martial artists
- *Recognising Prior learning (RPL) is accepted
- *Level 1—6 (up to Diploma)
- *Open to all martial artists irrespective of grade
- *No waiting for courses to be scheduled start anytime
- *Flexible delivery (online, home study, and face to face in all states)
- *Competency achieved via RPL, theory, assignments, and/or by demonstration face to face and via video
- *Additional resource material for free (SEO marketing, school operations etc)
- *Each level you do contributes to a higher certificate
- *Mix and match units to meet and expand your individual career pathway

ABOUT OUR COURSES

Martial Arts Australia works in association with TTS-100 The Training Solution (TTS-100) - Registered Training Organisation 51951 based in Western Australia to delivery Nationally Recognised Training

Our "Martial Arts Trainer Courses" are targeted at those persons who have been operating in various forms of Martial Arts for some time and who now wish to progress to hold nationally recognised qualifications and skills.

Courses are structured at (6) five levels and each addresses the requirements and responsibilities as well as the administrative and legislative frameworks that impact upon your role at the chosen level. As well as providing essential information on practices and procedures, our courses will reflect a number of competency requirements you need to meet to receive the desired qualification to obtain a nationally accredited qualification that will enable you to operate in a professional and legal manner.

Our online courses run on a themed basis, addressing course material taken from several training packages to recognise the numerous skills and abilities needed. The structure and units have been developed after consultation with stakeholders and highly respected members of all forms of martial arts.

We have listed the first three levels to start you off - Senior Master Levels 4-6 will be released shortly
